What is WOOD BADGE?

In 1911, Baden-Powell took the first steps in training Scouting's adult leaders by organizing a series of lectures for Scouters. He made great strides in the years that followed, culminating in 1919 with the establishment of Wood Badge training. Wood Badge recipients now number more than 100,000 and can be found in all corners of the world!

What Will You gain from WOOD BADGE?

As a result of attending Wood Badge, you will be able to:

- Have fun and fellowship in the company of interesting, like-minded Scouters
- View Scouting globally as a family of interrelated, values-based programs that provide age-appropriate activities for youth
- Become familiar with contemporary team leadership concepts
- Apply the skills you learn from your participation as a member of a successful working team
- Develop a renewed commitment to Scouting with the best possible leadership

How is WOOD BADGE Presented?

Wood Badge consists of two phases. The first is the practical phase. This consists of two full weekends (totaling six days) plus one patrol meeting between the weekends. The second phase, or application phase, occurs after the weekend trainings and consists of "working your ticket" - a set of five Scouting-related goals.

What is the WOOD BADGE Ticket?

The primary purpose of the Wood Badge experience is to strengthen Scouting in units, districts, and the council. The Wood Badge "ticket" represents your commitment to complete a set of personal goals related to your Scouting position. These goals will significantly strengthen the program in which you are involved. In addition, the ticket gives you an opportunity to practice and demonstrate a working knowledge of the leadership and team skills presented during the course. You should complete your Wood Badge ticket no later than 18 months after the practical phase of the course.

How am I recognized once finished?

Upon completion of the Wood Badge ticket, as certified by your Troop Guide and the Scout Executive, you will be presented your Wood Badge certificate, neckerchief, woggle, and beads at an appropriate public ceremony.

Many Scouters consider Wood Badge to be one of the highlights of their Scouting careers. It has served as a source of training and inspiration to thousands. In return, Wood Badge participants have positively affected the lives of millions of America's youth.

Who Attends WOOD BADGE?

Wood Badge for the 21st Century has been developed for all Cub Scout, Boy Scout, Varsity Scout and Venturing adult Leaders, as well as council and district leaders. The course content, with team and leadership principles, apply to Scouters in all leadership positions. Wood Badge provides a common foundation of leadership and team skills used throughout all program areas.

What are the course Qualifications?

To attend a Wood Badge course, you must:

1. Be a registered adult member of the Boy Scouts of America. (There is no minimum tenure required.)
2. Have completed the basic training courses for your Scouting position
3. Have completed the outdoor skills training appropriate for your Scouting position.
4. Be capable of functioning safely in an outdoor environment. Successful completion of the BSA Physical Exam is required for all participants.
