BADEN POWELICAN
COMING TO NEST IN THE
GULF COAST COUNCIL!

HONORING PEOPLE AND
ORGANIZATIONS
IMPORTANT TO SCOUTING'S
FIRST 100 YEARS.

Baden Powelican will be one of the newest Pelicans in the Pensacola News Journal Series

“Pelicans In Paradise”

www.pelicansinparadise.com

Our pelican is being created by Diane Goeller, previous pelican series artist.

The Gulf Coast Council, BSA will become the final nesting place for this pelican.

Baden Powelican will help us put the final touches on this historic year of Scouting.

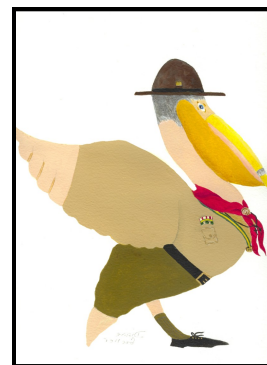

Our 100th Anniversary!

Project will end on February 1st, 2011

You can join us as part of this great project which not only helps to raise dollars for our Scout Assistance Fund but helps you honor someone or an organization that was special to you and your Scouting experience.

Honor a past Scout Leader, Volunteer, Scout, Son or Daughter, Mom or Dad or even a Church or Business that made your Scouting experience special. This is a great way to say Thanks!!!

Here is how you can participate in this honor:

Complete the form on the back of this flyer.

Pay $100 per honoree.

($100 for 100 years of Scouting)

You can pay by check or credit card.

All honored will have their name placed on a special plaque that will nest with Baden Powelican.

The name is limited to 20 characters per honoree.

Its That Simple!!

$100 honors great Scouting and our 100th Anniversary.
