

Cub Scout World Conservation Award

The World Conservation Award provides an opportunity for individual Wolf Scouts, Bear Scouts, Webelos Scouts, Boy Scouts, Varsity Scouts, and Venturers to “think globally” and “act locally” to preserve and improve our environment. This program is designed to make youth members aware that all nations are closely related through natural resources, and that we and our world environment are interdependent.

Requirements for this award must be completed in addition to any similar requirements completed for rank.

The Award

The Cub Scout World Conservation Award, No. 139, is an embroidered emblem bearing the standard World Conservation panda on a purple fleur-de-lis. The emblem has a gold background with a blue border. It is available at your BSA local council service center. The emblem is worn centered on the right pocket of the Cub Scout uniform shirt as a temporary patch.
