

Scouting Offers Enhancements to Home Schooling

Requirement program designed for each grade level with a variety of fun activities to capture a scout's interests

Academic program which can be integrated into educational programs

Sports program to encourage physical fitness, social interaction and team building

Council and district events such as Family Camping, Cub Fun Day, Day Camp, Scout-O-Rama and more providing interaction with other scouts and a program full of fun outdoor activities to keep a scout's attention

Scout camp programs taught by qualified instructors including aquatics, canoeing, nature, shooting sports, scout craft

Advancement program that promotes self esteem in recognition of completing requirements

Training for leaders in all facets of scouting to help provide a quality program and improve leadership skills: Fast Start, Basic Leader Training, Advanced Leader Training, Aquatics, CPR, Youth Protection and more; all available to help you as needed

Network of support for new units / leaders with a tried and true process to help them become well versed in the BSA program and not reinvent the wheel as time is a precious commodity

100 years of experience in providing the leaders of tomorrow:

. A recent nationwide survey of high schools revealed the following information:

- 85% of student presidents were Scouts
- 89% of senior class presidents were Scouts
- 80% of junior class presidents were Scouts
- 75% of school publication editors were Scouts
- 71% of football captains were Scouts
- 64% of Air Force Academy graduates

Scout also account for:

- 68% of West Point graduates
- 70% of Annapolis graduates
- 72% of Rhodes Scholars
- 85% of F. B. I. agents
- 26 of the first 29 astronauts were Scouts

For information or answers to your questions on scouting, please call the Gulf Coast Council at 850- 476-6336 or 888-GULF BSA